PENN STATE'S HODGE FIRST FRESHMAN EVER NAMED BIG TEN WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL PLAYER OF THE YEAR
(excerpt)

University Park, Pa. --- On the heels of a Big Ten-record fourth consecutive outright league title, the Penn State women's volleyball program has made history yet again. Conference officials announced Tuesday (Nov. 28) that freshman outside hitter Megan Hodge (Durham, N.C.) has been named both the Big Ten Player of the Year, marking the first time in the conference's 23-year history that a freshman has claimed the Big Ten's top honor.

A unanimous First Team All-Big Ten selection, Hodge becomes just one of five Penn State freshman named to the top squad.... She leads the team and the conference with 4.80 kills per game and 5.55 points per game, including 5.34 kpg and 6.16 ppg in Big Ten-only matches. She ranks second on the Lion squad and seventh in the league with 0.36 service aces per game, including sitting second in the conference with 0.41 sapg in Big Ten-only matches. Named the Big Ten Player of the Week three times during the season, Hodge has recorded double-digit kills in 17 matches, tallying 15 or more kills in 17 contests and 20 or more kills in six outings. She has nine career double-doubles, including a career-best 20 digs versus Michigan. An all-around player, Hodge has posted at least one block in 28 matches, with 21 contests with two or more blocks. She has also recorded at least one ace in 19 matches.

REBECCA BREZOVEC EARNS ESPN THE MAGAZINE ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA®
FIRST TEAM HONORS FOR THE SECOND YEAR IN A ROW; WINGATE SENIOR
NAMED ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA® OF
THE YEAR (excerpt)

Waltham, Mass. ---Wingate University senior Rebecca Brezovec (Durham, N.C.) headlines the 2006 ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America® volleyball first team (College Division), as selected by CoSIDA (College Sports Information Directors of America). Brezovec earns ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America® volleyball first team honors for the second year in a row. Brezovec was voted Academic All-America® of the Year in volleyball for the College Division. Only one student-athlete is selected Academic All-America® of the Year in each sport. She is the second Wingate student-athlete to earn Academic All-America® of the Year honors.

Earlier this month, Brezovec earned ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District III volleyball first team honors. District III (college division) includes all non-NCAA Division I schools (Division II, III and NAIA) in Florida, Georgia, Virginia and North and South Carolina. A three-time All-District honoree, Brezovec has a perfect 4.00 GPA in her Sociology major.

Brezovec was the 2006 South Atlantic Conference Player of the Year. She is a two-time All-SAC middle blocker. Brezovec won the SAC Scholar-Athlete Award for volleyball for the second time in 2006. The SAC Scholar-Athlete Award is a prestigious honor given to only one student-athlete in each of the league's 14 sports.

Brezovec was named SAC Player of the Week twice this season (August 28 and October 9). In 103 games in 2006, Brezovec had 409 kills (3.97/game), 105 blocks (1.02/game) and a .328 hitting percentage. The Riverside High School graduate was second in the SAC in hitting percentage.
