PRESS RELEASE

Triangle announces its 2011 Club Teams

21 team slate is largest in Triangle history

Morrisville, NC, November 16, 2010: On Monday, November 15th Triangle Volleyball Club officially introduced its 2011 club membership at its 9th annual Signing Day Celebration. The celebration began with a parade of student-athletes and the ‘signing’ tradition established with the founding of Triangle in 2002. Alumnae speaker and UNC-Chapel Hill libero, Kaylie Gibson ’07 spoke of her volleyball journey and how her Triangle experience prepared her for the collegiate level. The evening also included a keynote address from Executive Director Casey Caram, team building and Tri-pod activities, and informational presentations.

Tryouts attracted 420 student-athletes to Triangle during October and early November; the largest tryout attendance in the club’s history. Triangle is expanding its 2011 team slate by two to include twenty-one teams at age levels ranging from “12 & under” to “18 & under”. Among the 208 student-athletes on Triangle’s 2011 club roster are 85 new members. Triangle members reside in eleven counties and attend 85 different area elementary, middle and high schools.

Casey Caram, Triangle’s Executive Director, enters his 9th and final season at Triangle. Proud of the club’s history and optimistic for its continued success, he stated “Triangle was designed to be a different kind of volleyball club requiring above all a willingness on the part of student-athletes and families to fully commit to and support a mission and vision of excellence that permeates its programs and operations. Volleyball continues to grow in North Carolina and the depth of talent is expanding at all age levels,” stated Caram. “Triangle continues to attract the area’s best talent and our 2011 teams are poised for success both on and off the court.”

The club has grown from six to twenty-one teams since it opened its dedicated volleyball facility in 2006. “We have recently extended our lease until 2016 and are undergoing renovations that include the addition of air conditioning” stated Sherry Fadool, Triangle’s Associate Director. “With our state-of-the-art facility and 50 talented and experienced coaches our student-athletes have the resources and opportunity to realize their potential through development in their sport.”

Triangle teams compete both regionally as part of the Carolina Region of U.S.A. Volleyball (USAV) and nationally in national qualifying events and tournaments such as Monument City Classic, Capitol Hill Classic, Big South Qualifier, AAU Junior Nationals and the USA Junior National Championships. Triangle Volleyball Club is also a partner in the operation of the Mid-Atlantic Power League which allows all Triangle national teams additional opportunities to compete at a high level along the eastern seaboard.
