PRESS RELEASE

Triangle Volleyball Club Qualifies Eight (8) Teams for Jr. National Championships

Triangle earns seven (7) of twelve (12) national bids available through the Carolina Region

Morrisville, NC, April 30, 2010: Triangle Volleyball Club is sending eight (8) teams to Reno, Nevada this summer to compete in the 2010 USA Volleyball Girls' Jr. National Championships. The first of Triangle's teams to qualify for this prestigious national event was Triangle 18 Black, who "double" qualified in the 18 Open division at two national qualifying tournaments, the Mizuno Hoosier Mideast Qualifier in Indianapolis and the Mizuno Lone Star Classic in Dallas. The remaining seven (7) bids were earned at Carolina Region Bid tournaments on April 10, 2010.

The Carolina Region has two Jr. National (2) bids to award to teams at each age level from 13 & under through 18 & under. Triangle captured seven (7) of these bids yielding a total of eight (8) thereby tying its 2008 record for the most-ever bids earned during a single club season.

Teams competing in Jr. National Championships earn bids in one of three divisions: Open, National, and American. Triangle will send one (1) Open team, four (4) National teams, and three (3) American teams to compete for National Championships this year.

The 2010 qualifying teams are:

Triangle 13 Black (National)
Triangle 14 Black (National)
Triangle 14 Blue (American)
Triangle 15 Black (American)

Triangle 16 Black (National)
Triangle 16 Blue (American)
Triangle 17 Black (National)
Triangle 18 Black (Open)
