Triangle Volleyball Club Qualifies Seven (7) Teams for Jr. National Championships

Triangle qualifies a team in every age level through the Carolina Region

Morrisville, NC, May 17, 2011: Triangle Volleyball Club will send seven (7) teams to Atlanta, Georgia this summer to compete in the 2011 USA Volleyball Girls' Jr. National Championships [JNC's]. The first of Triangle's teams to qualify for this prestigious national event was Triangle 18 Black, who qualified in the 18 Open division by finishing third at the Big South National Qualifier in early April. The remaining six (6) bids were earned at Carolina Region Bid tournaments held in Greensboro on April 30, 2011.

The Carolina Region has two (2) Jr. National bids to award to teams at each age level from 13 & under through 18 & under. Triangle captured six (6) of these bids, one at every age level, yielding a total of seven (7) for the 2011 season. In its nine-year history Triangle has earned a total of 43 bids to Junior Nationals, the most of any club in the region's history. Triangle is among 23 other junior clubs in the country to secure this seven or more bids to JNC's.

Teams competing in Jr. National Championships earn bids in one of three divisions: Open, National, and American. Triangle will send one (1) Open team, five (5) National teams, and one (1) American teams to compete for National Championships this year.

The 2011 qualifying teams and competitive division are:

Triangle 13 Black (National)

Triangle 14 Black (American)

Triangle 15 Black (National)

Triangle 16 Black (National)

Triangle 17 Black (National)

Triangle 18 Black (Open)

Triangle 18 Blue (National)
